Freedom Public Library Summer Programs 2018

Special Events

- Wednesday, June 20 at 2:00 Yo-yo Guy John Higby is kicking off the Summer Reading Program at Freedom Elementary. He has been performing his highly skilled comedy yo-yo show for 20 years and in 26 countries. He holds 5 Guinness World Records! All are invited to this free event!
- Thursday, June 21 from 1:00 - 3:00 "School's Out!" Party featuring a bouncy house, giant bubbles, a craft project and make-your-own sundaes! Register for the summer reading program which begins June 17 for four age groups.
- Wednesday, August 8 at 10:00 at Town Hall Wildlife Encounters.

They'll be bringing a new set of live animals to see and learn about. Some you'll get to touch!

- Friday, August 10 at 3:30 at Town Hall Alex the Jester is a charmer who knows funny. He speaks a magical sounding gibberish called Grammelot that somehow makes sense to everyone, regardless of native tongue. His dialect, costuming, music, charisma and wildly imaginative spirit transport you back to the days of the Medieval Fool. Your funny bone will never forget it!
