

Cash Gifts to the Freedom Public Library

The Freedom Public Library operates through allocations of tax money and is audited by an independent auditor. The Friends of the Freedom Public Library is a volunteer organization that exists to raise money for the library and support its mission and programs. Therefore, the Library funds and the Friends' funds may not be comingled or integrated, except that the Library may accept gifts from the Friends and expend them, keeping them as separate funds for auditing and bookkeeping purposes.

Cash gifts to the Library shall be accepted by the Library at monthly Trustees' meetings and added together as a line item under "Other Income," the amount of each gift listed separately. Gifts may be expended for the specific purpose intended by the donor or for general purposes, and will be added together under "Other Expense."
